

difference in false negative rate between correlated and independent group testing under prevalence 0.01

